

Website Policy

Terms and Conditions

Official Burton Pride C.I.C. policy document

August 2026

BURTON PRIDE C.I.C. WEBSITE POLICY

Terms and Conditions

Official Burton Pride C.I.C. Website Policy Terms and Conditions

1. Introduction

Welcome to Burton Pride C.I.C.

These Terms and Conditions govern your use of our website, services, and any interaction with Burton Pride C.I.C.

Burton Pride C.I.C is a grassroots, community-led organisation, created by the community, for the community. Our purpose is to support, represent, and celebrate the LGBTQIA+ community. We are committed to operating in a way that is ethical, transparent, inclusive, and accountable.

By using this website, you agree to these Terms and to act in a way that respects our values and the community we serve.

2. Use of Website

By accessing this website, you agree to use it lawfully, respectfully, and responsibly.

- Use the website for unlawful, harmful, or abusive purposes
- Attempt to gain unauthorised access to any systems, servers, or admin areas
- Disrupt or interfere with the website's functionality or security
- Submit false or misleading information through any forms

We reserve the right to restrict or remove access where these terms are breached.

3. Ethical Data Use and Protection

We collect and process personal data in accordance with UK GDPR.

We may collect data when you:

- Visit our website
- Submit forms (contact, volunteer, sponsor, competition entry)
- Upload content (such as images)
- Make payments or interact with our services

Your data may include your name, contact details, and information you provide.

We commit to:

- Collecting only necessary and relevant data
- Using data only for its intended purpose
- Storing data securely using trusted systems, including Supabase and the Burton Pride Admin Portal
- Restricting access to authorised personnel only

We will never sell, trade, or exploit your personal data for financial gain.

4. Third-Party Service Providers

We use trusted third-party providers to operate our services, including:

- Supabase (database and hosting)
- Stripe and PayPal (payments)
- Shopify (e-commerce)
- Email and communication services

These providers may process data on our behalf. We aim to work only with ethical providers that meet strong data protection and security standards.

5. Payments, Donations, and Financial Ethics

Payments made through our website are processed securely via third-party providers.

We commit to:

- Not storing full payment card details
- Ensuring secure and reliable payment processing
- Using all funds to support Burton Pride's community mission

As a grassroots organisation, all income is reinvested into delivering events and services.

6. Your Rights

Under UK GDPR, you have the right to:

- Access your personal data
- Correct inaccurate data
- Request deletion of your data
- Withdraw consent at any time
- Restrict or object to data processing

We aim to respond to valid requests within 30 days.

7. Data Retention

We retain personal data only for as long as necessary.

Data may be kept:

- While you are actively engaging with Burton Pride
- For legal, safeguarding, or administrative purposes

When no longer required, data will be securely deleted or anonymised.

8. Intellectual Property

All website content (text, images, branding, design) belongs to Burton Pride C.I.C unless stated otherwise.

You may:

- Share content for non-commercial, community purposes

You must not:

- Use content for commercial gain without permission
- Misrepresent or alter content in a harmful way.

9. Liability and Disclaimer

We aim to ensure all information is accurate and up to date, but we do not guarantee completeness.

We are not liable for:

- Loss or damage from use of the website
- Temporary downtime or technical issues
- Issues caused by third-party services

Use of the website is at your own risk.

10. Transparency, Accountability, and Community Commitment

Transparency and accountability are fundamental to Burton Pride C.I.C.

We are committed to operating in a way that is open, ethical, and always in the best interests of the community.

Our Commitment to the Community

We commit to:

- Being open about how Burton Pride operates, including decisions, funding, and technology used
- Making ethical decisions that prioritise inclusivity, fairness, and community wellbeing
- Using funds responsibly to support our mission
- Working only with ethical partners and sponsors
- Remaining fully independent from external control or influence
- Ensuring the community remains at the centre of all decisions

Sponsorship Conduct and Termination Rights

All sponsors and partners must respect the values and independence of Burton Pride C.I.C.

We reserve the right to immediately terminate any sponsorship or partnership without compensation if a sponsor or partner:

- Attempts to control or override Burton Pride decisions
- Acts in a way that harms or misrepresents the community
- Uses Burton Pride for purposes that conflict with our values
- Attempts to place commercial interests above the community

In such cases:

- All association and branding rights may be removed
- The partnership will be ended immediately
- No financial compensation or refund will be provided

Community-First Principle

Burton Pride C.I.C will always remain a community-led organisation, built on the principle of "by the community, for the community."

This means:

- The needs, safety, and wellbeing of the community will always come before financial or commercial interests
- No external organisation will be allowed to influence or control Burton Pride in a way that conflicts with our purpose
- We will actively protect the integrity, inclusivity, and representation of the community
- All decisions will be made with long-term community benefit in mind

We will safeguard the organisation from any influence that could compromise its values, mission, or independence.

Accountability and Raising Concerns

We welcome feedback and accountability from the community.

If you believe Burton Pride C.I.C is not meeting these standards, you have the right to raise concerns.

We commit to:

- Reviewing all concerns fairly and without bias
- Responding in a respectful and timely manner
- Taking appropriate action where necessary
- Being transparent about outcomes where appropriate

11. Admin Portal

The Burton Pride C.I.C. Admin Portal is a private and restricted system for authorised committee members, directors and approved administrators only.

Access must be approved by Burton Pride C.I.C. Authorised users must keep their login details secure, must not share their account with another person, and may be required to complete two-step verification before access is granted.

For security, accountability and protection of Burton Pride systems, the Admin Portal may record:

- Successful and failed login attempts
- IP addresses
- Approximate location based on IP address
- Device, operating system and browser information
- Two-step verification and security activity
- Administrative and audit activity within the Admin Portal

This information is used only for legitimate security, accountability, administration and system-protection purposes. Unauthorised access, attempted access, account sharing or attempts to bypass Admin Portal security are prohibited.

Full Admin Portal Terms, security requirements and acceptable-use rules are provided directly to authorised administrators within the Burton Pride Admin Portal.

Contact

For any concerns, data requests, or general enquiries, please contact:

Info@burtonpride.co.uk

Simon Whale

Chair of Burton Pride C.I.C.

August 2026